

Dear Sir or Madame, The United States was founded in freedom. Freedom of choice and free markets are just a couple of the things that make this country great. Should you decide to block XM Radio from providing a valuable service like instant weather and traffic to its paying customers, you will be robbing us of some of those freedoms. I urge you to please consider that before rendering judgement.

Thank You,

David Wagner